Part II

REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION

Sometimes people with disabilities may need a reasonable accommodation in order to take full advantage of the CDA housing programs and related services. When such accommodations are granted they do not confer special treatment or advantage for the person with a disability; rather, they make the program fully accessible to them in a way that would otherwise not be possible due to their disability. This section clarifies how people can request accommodations and the guidelines the CDA will follow in determining whether it is reasonable to provide a requested accommodation. Because disabilities are not always apparent, the CDA will ensure that all applicants/participants are aware of the opportunity to request reasonable accommodations.

Factors in Granting or Denying the Accommodation

- A. Is the requestor a person with disabilities? The definition of disabled used for this purpose is:

A person with a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities, has a record of such impairment, or is regarded as having such impairment. (The disability may not be apparent to others, i.e., a heart condition).

If the disability is apparent or already documented, the answer to this question is yes. It is possible that the disability for which the accommodation is being requested is a disability other than the apparent disability. If the disability is not apparent or documented, the Dakota County CDA will obtain verification that the person is a person with a disability.

- B. Is the requested accommodation related to the disability? If it is apparent that the request is related to the apparent or documented disability, the answer to this question is yes. If it is not apparent, the CDA will obtain documentation that the requested accommodation is needed due to the disability.
- C. Is the requested accommodation reasonable? In order to be determined reasonable, the accommodation must meet 2 criteria:
1. Would the accommodation constitute a fundamental alteration of the program scope or purpose? The CDA's business is housing. If the request would alter the fundamental business that the CDA conducts, that would not be reasonable. For instance, the CDA would deny a request to have the CDA do grocery shopping for the person with disabilities.
 2. Would the requested accommodation create an undue financial hardship or administrative burden? Frequently the requested accommodation costs little or nothing. If the cost would be an undue burden, the CDA may request a meeting with the individual to investigate and consider equally effective alternatives.

Generally, the individual knows best what they need; however, the CDA retains the right to be shown how the requested accommodation enables the individual to access or use the CDA's programs or services.

If more than one accommodation is equally effective in providing access to the CDA's programs and services, the CDA retains the right to select the most efficient or economic choice.

All decisions granting or denying requests will be in writing.

Part III

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

A. Profile Requirements

To be eligible for admission, the head of household must be at least 55 years of age. In addition, all additional members must be 50 years of age.

This does not apply to non-eligible employees required to live in the building.

B. Income Limits for Admission

The applicant's family must provide adequate evidence that the Annual Income (as defined in Part I, Item 2) for the 12-month period following occupancy is not anticipated to exceed the Income Limits for Admission. The income limit for admission is 60% of the area median income adjusted by family size as determined by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. This does not apply to non-eligible employees required to live in the building.

C. Asset Limits for Admission

The only asset limitation is in conjunction with determination of whether a family is income eligible as defined in Part I, Section 2, C, where assets exceed $5,000. (net family assets are defined in Part I, Section 15).

D. Non-Economic Eligibility Criteria

In determining eligibility, the following factors shall also apply:

1. Whether the conduct of the applicant in present or prior housing has been such that admission to the program would adversely affect the health, safety, or welfare of other residents, the physical environment, or the financial stability of the program. A record of any of the following may be sufficient cause for the CDA to deny eligibility:
 - a. Non-payment of rightful obligations, including rent and utilities.
 - b. Disturbance of neighbors.
 - c. Destruction of property.
 - d. Poor living or housekeeping habits.
 - e. Has engage in or threatened violent or abusive behavior toward CDA personnel

- Abusive or violent behavior towards CDA personnel includes verbal as well as physical abuse or violence. Use of racial epithets, or other language, written or oral, that is customarily used to intimidate may be considered abusive or violent behavior.
 - Threatening refers to oral or written threats or physical gestures that communicate intent to abuse or commit violence.
- f. A history of criminal activity involving crimes of criminal violence to persons or property or a record of other criminal acts which adversely affect the health, safety, or welfare of other residents.
 - g. Is subject to a lifetime registration requirement under any state's sex offender registration program. CDA staff will conduct a search of all adult members within a household at initial lease up and at annual recertification. The CDA must terminate the lease of a current resident who becomes subject to such registration.
 - h. An applicant who has a record of lease violations and/or excessive damages
 - i. Violations while receiving housing assistance through the Housing Choice Voucher.
 - j. Applicants being investigated or convicted of fraudulent activity against another government agency. If under investigation, the file will be held until a conviction or non-guilty verdict is determined by the courts.
2. In determining eligibility for admission, the CDA shall rely upon sources of information which may include, but not limited to, CDA records, personal interviews with the applicant or resident, home visits, interviews with previous landlords, employers, family social workers, parole officers, criminal, court, and credit records, clinics, physicians, or the police department. This will be done in order to determine whether the individual attributes, prior conduct, and behavior of a particular applicant or resident is likely to interfere with other residents in such a manner as to diminish their health, safety or welfare, or by adversely affecting the physical environment or the financial stability of the CDA's Nicols Pointe Housing program.
 3. In the event of the receipt of unfavorable information with respect to an applicant, consideration shall be given to the time, nature, and extent of the applicant's conduct and to factors which might indicate a reasonable probability of favorable future conduct or financial prospects.

Each applicant determined to be ineligible shall be promptly notified by the CDA in writing of such determination with the reasons therefore.

Part IV
RESIDENT SELECTION AND ASSIGNMENT POLICIES

The Resident Selection and Assignment Policies have been designed by the CDA to take into consideration the needs of individual families for the purpose of developing and operating a socially and financially sound low to moderate-income housing program, which provides a decent home, suitable environment, and fosters economic and social diversity in the resident body as a whole.

- A. The CDA shall not discriminate against any applicant because of race, color, creed, religion, sex, national origin, political or other affiliation, marital status, handicap, or source of income.
- B. Resident Selection and Assignment Plan

Each applicant shall be assigned their appropriate place on the waiting in sequence based upon the date and time their application is received and factors affecting preference or priority established by CDA regulation.

When an applicant reaches the top of the waiting list, their eligibility for the program will be evaluated. Once their application is approved they will be placed on those building applicant lists in sequence based upon the date and time their program eligibility is verified.

At a given time, the applicant first on the waiting list shall be offered a dwelling unit in accordance with the following plan:

1. If at the time the eligible applicant comes to the top of the waiting list and a unit is available, the applicant must accept the vacancy offered or be removed from that eligible applicant list.
2. If the applicant is willing to accept the unit offered but is unable to move at the time of the offer due to health reasons, and presents clear evidence of inability to move to the CDA's satisfaction, refusal of the offer shall be considered to be allowable refusal and the applicant's name shall not be moved to the bottom of the eligible applicant list.
3. An applicant pending a fraud investigation by any government agency will be bypassed on the applicant list until the applicant is either convicted or acquitted of fraud.
4. Once an applicant accepts a unit offered to them by the CDA, the applicant's date of application will move to the date of move in for any remaining CDA housing waiting lists that they are on.

C. Preference Factors in the Selection of Residents for Nicols Pointe Housing

 - c. Have vacated their housing unit as a result of actual or threatened physical violence recently or of a continuing nature directed against the applicant or one or more members of applicant's family by a spouse or other household member or applicant lives in a housing unit with such an individual who engages in such violence. In addition, the applicant must be referred from a domestic abuse shelter in which they are currently residing in.
2. Applicants who are residents of, or are working in Dakota County, or who have Community Roots and are Veterans
3. Applicants who are Veterans
4. Applicants who are residents of, or are working in Dakota County, or who have Community Roots.

NOTE: Community roots are defined as applicants who work, or have immediate family members in the County. Immediate family members are defined as mother, father, son, daughter, brother or sister.

5. Applicants who are non-Dakota County residents

Handicap accessible units will be filled by applicants, whether Dakota County residents or a Veteran, that have a physical disability and are in need of an accessible unit. These applicants will be offered handicap accessible units prior to all other applicants who do not have the need for an accessible unit.

D. Reassignment or Transfers to Other Dwelling Units

Reassignment or transfers to other dwelling units shall be made without regard to race, color, or national origin as follows:

1. If it is determined that a resident is in need of a handicapped accessible apartment they will be transferred at no cost to the resident, once proper documentation has been approved by the Dakota County CDA and an accessible unit becomes available. Transfers of this type will take precedence over new admissions.
2. Residents may request to transfer to the same bedroom size within the building that they are residing, as a convenience transfer and they will assume all costs of preparing their original unit for re-rental (including, but not limited to: painting, cleaning and flooring replacement).

E. Purging the Waiting List

The waiting list will be updated as needed to ensure that all applicants and applicant information is current and timely.

To update the waiting list, the CDA will send a notice via email to each applicant on the waiting list to determine whether the applicant continues to be interested in the program. This notice will be sent to the last email address that the CDA has on record for the applicant.

If the applicant fails to respond by the deadline provided, the applicant will be removed from the waiting list without further notice.

If the notice is returned as undeliverable, the applicant will be removed from the waiting without further notice.

- If the applicant contacts the CDA within 30 days of removal, the applicant will be placed back on the waiting list.

F. Removal from the Waiting List

If at any time an applicant is determined ineligible, they will be removed from the waiting list.

If at any time an applicant requests that their name be removed from the waiting list, the applicant will be removed from the waiting list.

If an applicant is removed from the waiting list because the CDA has determined the family is not eligible for assistance or has failed to comply with a request for information, as it relates to preference or other eligibility components, a notice will be sent to the applicant's last known email address on file.

Part V

This section applies to residents who participate in the local subsidy program offered by the Dakota County CDA as described in Part V of this policy.

- A. Residents at the time of lease renewal will be deemed ineligible by failure to meet any of the following:
 - 1. Residents who are scheduled for lease renewal and who are deemed to be ineligible for continued occupancy because of their breach of lease clauses shall be so advised in writing and their leases terminated pursuant to the terms and conditions of the lease.
 - 2. Residents who have been determined incapable of living independently.
 - 3. Residents whom are now subject to a lifetime registration requirement under the State sex offender registration program. All household members will be searched for on the Sex Offender Registry web site annually.
- B. At the end of a 12-month lease period, the resident shall receive an automatic percentage increase (inflation factor) in rent which shall apply to and remain in effect for the next 12-month lease period. The increase shall be a percentage of the prior rent. This percent may be changed by the CDA from time to time, and shall be listed on the schedule of rents.
 - 1. The Executive Director shall have the authority to establish percentage increases (inflation factors) of up to 3.5%.
 - 2. The inflation factors will be based on increases in the fair market rent (FMR) established by Department of Housing and Urban Development and the CDA market study.
 - 3. Inflation factors exceeding 3.5% will require approval of the CDA Board of Commissioners.
- C. Once rent is established, such rental rate shall remain in effect for a 12-month lease term.
- D. If management determines that the resident has gained admission or remained in occupancy in the CDA's program through the resident's willful misrepresentation of income, assets, or family composition, management may notify the resident that they have 60-days to find alternative housing and vacate the leased premises. Restitution of the difference must be paid in full within a time limit determined by the CDA.

The CDA will not approve the addition of a person to the household within the first 6 months of occupancy if that additional household member's income, together with the resident's family income at admission would have resulted in the family being ineligible for admission.

Part VIII

VERIFICATION OF APPLICANT'S STATEMENTS AND INCOME

All income and asset information for admission will be verified by the CDA. Written inquiries will include a statement of the purpose of the inquiry and a statement signed by the applicant to permit the source to release information.

All verifications will be obtained within 180 days of initial lease date, and will be verified in accordance with the above provisions.

Resident file will contain documentation of all verifications.

- A. Applicants/residents must furnish verification or provide authorization for the CDA to obtain verification from a third party of all statements regarding income and assets. Certification by signing the application for admission will normally be considered sufficient verification for family composition.
- B. All income and assets will be verified at the time of admission. Income will be verified by third party verification. If third party written verification is not possible, a review of documentation provided by the family such as benefit checks, income tax returns, benefit award letters, savings and checking account statements, estimated market value of real estate from tax statements, United States savings bond redemption values, and other supporting documents may be accepted. In cases where third party verification is not possible, the CDA will document the reason why another method was used. (United States Treasury checks will not be photocopied).
- C. The following statements will also be verified and documented in the resident file:
 - 1. Age of family members when the sole factor determining eligibility is age.
 - 2. Non-economic selection criteria when information provides the basis of denial of eligibility based on the conduct of the applicant or members of his or her family. (See Part III – eligibility requirements).

If the CDA terminates the lease, written notice will be given as follows:

- 1. In the case of failure to pay rent Part V, Section B, 3 will be applicable.

 - 3. At least sixty (60) days prior to termination in all other cases.
- D. Notice of termination to resident shall state reasons for the termination.

Part XIII

RESIDENT DEBTS TO THE CDA (REPAYMENT AGREEMENTS)

OVERVIEW describes the CDA's policies for recovery of monies owed to the CDA by residents. The CDA will enter into repayment agreements in accordance with the policies contained in this part as a means to recover overpayments.

When a resident refuses to repay monies owed to the CDA, the CDA will utilize other available collection alternatives including, but not limited to, the following:

- Collection agencies
- Small claims court
- Civil law suit
- State income tax set-off program

REPAYMENT POLICY

Family Debts to the CDA

Any amount owed to the CDA by a resident must be repaid. If the resident is unable to repay the debt within 30 days, the CDA may offer to enter into a repayment agreement in accordance with the policies below.

If the resident refuses to repay the debt, does not enter into a repayment agreement, or breaches a repayment agreement, the CDA will terminate the resident's tenancy and will also pursue other modes of collection.

General Repayment Agreement Guidelines

Down Payment Requirement

Before executing a repayment agreement with a resident, the CDA will generally require a down payment of 10 percent of the total amount owed. If the resident can provide evidence satisfactory to the CDA that a down payment of 10 percent would impose an undue hardship, the CDA may, in its sole discretion, require a lesser percentage or waive the requirement.

Payment Thresholds

The CDA has established the following thresholds for repayment of debts:

Amounts between $3,000 and the Federal or State threshold for criminal prosecution must be repaid within 36 months.

- Amounts between $2,000 and $2,999 must be repaid within 30 months.
- Amounts between $1,000 and $1,999 must be repaid within 24 months.
- Amounts under $1,000 must be repaid within 12 months.

If a resident can provide evidence satisfactory to the CDA that the threshold applicable to the resident's debt would impose an undue hardship, the CDA may, in its sole discretion, determine that a lower monthly payment amount is reasonable. In making its determination, the CDA will consider all relevant information, including the following:

- The amount owed by the family to the CDA

- The reason for the debt, including whether the debt was the result of family action/inaction or circumstances beyond the family's control
- The resident's current and potential income and expenses
- The current tenant rent
- The family's history of meeting its financial responsibilities

Execution of the Agreement

Any repayment agreement between the CDA and a resident must be signed and dated by the CDA and by the head of household, spouse/cohead or any other adult in the household that is 18 years of age or older (if applicable).

Due Dates

All payments are due by the close of business on the 5th day of the month. If the 5th does not fall on a business day, the due date is the close of business on the first business day after the 5th.

Late or Missed Payments

If a payment is not received by the end of the business day on the date due the CDA will send the family a delinquency notice giving the resident 14 days to make the late payment. If the payment is not received by the due date of the delinquency notice, it will be considered a breach of the agreement and the CDA will terminate tenancy.

No Offer of Repayment Agreement

The CDA generally will not enter into a repayment agreement with a household under any of the following conditions:

- The resident is already under an existing repayment agreement with the CDA.
- The CDA determines that the resident's debt is a result of program abuse or fraud.
- The amount owed by the resident exceeds the federal or state threshold for criminal prosecution.

Repayment Agreements Involving Improper Payments

Certain provisions to be included in any repayment agreement involving amounts owed by a resident because it underreported or failed to report income:

- A reference to the items in the housing lease that state the resident's obligation to provide true and complete information at every reexamination and the grounds on which the CDA may terminate assistance because of a resident's action or failure to act
- A statement clarifying that each month the resident not only must pay to the CDA the monthly payment amount specified in the agreement but must also pay to the CDA the monthly tenant rent
- A statement that the terms of the repayment agreement may be renegotiated if the resident's income decreases or increases
- A statement that late or missed payments constitute default of the repayment agreement and may result in termination of tenancy

B. DOCUMENTATION

Any request of documentation must be in writing, and the individual will be allowed 14 business days after the receipt of the request to submit the documentation. The CDA will grant an extension of an additional 10 business days at the applicant/tenant's written request.

The applicant/tenant may satisfy the CDA's request by providing any one of the following three forms of documentation:

- A completed and signed HUD form 5382, Certification of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault or Stalking, which must include the name of the perpetrator only if the name of the perpetrator is safe to provide and is known to the victim.

CDA Policy

Any request for documentation of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking will be in writing, will specify a deadline of 14 business days following receipt of the request, will describe the three forms of acceptable documentation, will provide explicit instructions on where and to whom the documentation must be submitted, and will state the consequences of failure to submit the documentation or request an extension in writing by the deadline.

The CDA may, in its discretion, extend the deadline for an additional 10 business days. Any extensions granted by the CDA will be in writing.

Conflicting Documentation

In cases where the CDA receives conflicting certification documents from two or more members of a household, each claiming to be a victim and naming one or more of the other petitioning household members as the perpetrator, the CDA may determine which is the true victim by requiring each to provide acceptable third party documentation as described above (2 and 3) within 30 calendar days of the date of the request for third party documentation. The CDA must honor any court orders issued to protect the victim or to address the distribution of property.

CDA Policy

If presented with conflicting certification documents (two or more forms HUD 5382) from members of the same household, the CDA will attempt to determine which is the true victim by requiring each of them to provide third-party documentation in accordance with 24 CFR 5.2007(e) and by the following any HUD guidance on how such determinations should be made. The family will have 30 calendar days from the date of the request by the CDA to provide this documentation.

Discretion to Require No Formal Documentation

The CDA has the discretion to provide benefits to an individual based solely on the individual's statement or other corroborating evidence i.e.: without requiring formal documentation of abuse in accordance with 24 CFR 5.2007(b).

CDA Policy

If the CDA accepts an individual's statement or other corroborating evidence of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking, the CDA will document acceptance of the statement or evidence in the individuals file.

Failure to Provide Documentation

In order to deny relief for protection under VAWA, the CDA must provide the individual requesting relief with a written request for documentation of abuse. If the individual fails to provide the documentation within 14 business days from the date of receipt, or such longer time that the CDA may allow, the CDA may deny relief for protection under VAWA.

C. CONFIDENTIALITY

All information provided to the CDA regarding domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking, including the fact that an individual is a victim of such violence or stalking, must be retained in confidence. This means that the CDA (1) may not enter the information into any shared data base, (2) may not allow employees or others to access the information unless they are explicitly authorized to do so and have a need to know the information for purposes of their work and (3) may not provide the information to any other entity or individual, except to the extent that the disclosure is (a) requested or consented to by the individual in writing, (b) required for use in an eviction proceedings, or (c) otherwise required by applicable law.
