

Fair Housing Training For Landlords

The Dakota County CDA is pleased to announce an upcoming Fair Housing Training for landlords, property managers/owners and others interested in learning more about this topic. It is a free training and will include information on the following:

- Fair Housing Protections
- Reasonable Accommodations
- The Complaint Process in State and Federal Agencies
- Landlord Obligations under the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA)

The training will be presented by Mary Dobbins. Mary is an attorney in private practice in Edina, Minnesota. For more than thirty years, she has practiced extensively in the area of housing law, representing both housing authorities and private landlords.

She regularly advises landlords and housing authorities with respect to housing issues and various subsidy programs. She litigates cases involving eviction of tenants and the termination of Section 8 benefits, as well as responding to complaints alleging discrimination in court or administrative agencies.

Mary received a BA from the University of Minnesota and her law degree from William Mitchell College of Law in St. Paul, Minnesota. She has been the chair of the Hennepin County Bar Association's Landlord Tenant Section and was a member of the adjunct faculty at William Mitchell College of Law for more than a decade.
